With Collapse of the Strike Leaders Will Devote Their Time

UNITING PEASANTS.

A Further Information Has Been Received About False Emperor

Who Was Said to Be Marching at Head of Army of Peasants.

Petersburg, Nov. 20.—With the collapse of the strike, the leaders of the strike say they will now devote their energies to the preparation of an assembly which will discuss the evolutionary program when the assembly meets. These plans have been suddenly upset by the collapse of the railroad strike last night. The cooperation not only of the strikers but the peasants and if possible the army and navy. The leaders already claim that they have organized the peasants in the provinces of Kharkoff, Poltava, and others, having agreed not to work until the landlords when the strike is ended. They anticipate that the strike which is at the doors of all of the million peasants of the provinces, according to estimate, will prove an effective ally of the peasants as they can promise to work the peasants' hands to an untold extent. The message which is now

BARS RAISED TO UNITARIANS.

New York, Nov. 20.—The Unitarian society, which has been organized since the formation of the Unitarian society, is now in the process of raising bars to the Unitarian society. It is understood that the change will extend from membership in the Unitarian society to the Unitarian society. This body was not involved in the conference of Unitarianism.

JAPAN REFUSES TO UNDERTAKE IT.

Tokyo, Nov. 20.—It is reported here that Japan is refusing to undertake the mission of transporting prisoners of war from Japan, asked by the Japanese government to convey them with warships to Vladivostok. But the Japanese declined to do so. Strong enmity between the members of the army and navy on the vessels is said to exist.

General Danckoff who came here to arrange for the transfer of the prisoners, has left Tokyo in haste for Nagasaki.

VISITED THE BOWERY

And Dallied Too Long With the Sparkling Wine and Women.

Prince's Fleet Will Be Fined Two Dollars For Each Sailor Left.

New York, Nov. 20.—About 200 sailors from the British squadron commanded by Prince Louis of Battenberg were missing from their ships when the squadron made ready to sail today. Several of these who had overstayed their leave were turned away when they tried to board their ships. As it was within a few hours of the fleet sailing time when they made their belated appearance the officers treated them as deserters refusing to let them go aboard. The officers said they were willing to lose these men on the principle that they are worthless and their loss good discipline.

Many of the rejected sailors wept their uniforms in some cases had been taken from them in Bowery shops and they had spent all their money before returning to their ships.

Many of them immediately applied to the immigrant authorities for passage to England. Commissioner

Witcham, said that a fine of $2 a head would be levied on the Prince's fleet for every sailor who appears to have been left straggling in New York, the same as is imposed on immigrants who are left in New York without the necessary papers. The British ships weighed anchor shortly before noon and sailed down the Hudson river bound for Gibraltar.

BIG INCREASE IN GOLD OUTPUT.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 20.—A report issued by the geological survey shows that the production of gold in the United States during 1914 amounted to 2,216,129 fine ounces, valued at $6,825,000.

This represents an increase of $7,245,648 over the production of 1913. The largest previous output in 1902 amounted to $6,000,000.

The production of silver in 1914 amounted to 55,999,861 fine ounces valued at $22,077,078. This represents an increase of 1,099,874 ounces over the production of 1913, and an increase in value of $7,717,078.

VICTIM OF SHOT IS UNCONSCIOUS.

Mr. Vernon, Ohio, Nov. 20.—Fred

Lawman, the young painter, who was mysteriously shot early yesterday morning, is still unconscious and unable to tell what he knows about the affair.

The sheriff has sent to Columbus for a detective to put on the case.

Lawman got up early Sunday morning and went out in the yard for a pitcher of water. While he was he was shot. Lawman's sister-in-law,

Mrs. John Lantz, rushed to the back door. When she opened the door she found her brother-in-law lying on the ground. He had been shot in the abdomen.

An examination of the patient was held yesterday and the bullet was extracted. He is in a bad condition.

NEWSBOYS ARRAYED

In Solid Front to Start a Crusade Against Sin's Work.

MOVEMENT WAS BEGUN

In a Storeroom in Cleveland and Wondrous Growth Has Followed.

New York, Nov. 20.—H. M. Briggs, who organized the newsboys of Cleveland, and started them on a crusade against sin, is in New York and trying to interest John D. Rockefeller in a movement to establish the "Newsies" under one roof. Mr. Briggs spent several hours with Mr. Rockefeller yesterday and is convinced that the latter is just as much interested in the newsboys of New York as he is in those of his native city.

Mr. Briggs said last night: "While

I am in New York on business, I have taken time to speak with Mr. Rockeefeller concerning the condition of that wonderful army of boys who are fighting through every season in the year to support themselves and members of their families. In Cleveland we had great success. I started the movement in my store. The boys got to coming there in the evenings and we gave them many good times. The numbers increased. There has never been a time since the first session when interest lagged. There is no reason why the newsboys of every city in the country cannot be organized and I am going about it with a view to seeing this idea fulfilled.

FRONT BURTON

For the Second Time in Two Years

Kansas Senator Is Facing Federal Grand Jury For Malfeasance.

WAS ONCE CONVICTED.

Charge Is Made That He Did Accept Money For His Influence

In Keeping the Government From Going After a Fraud Concern.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 20.—For the second time within two years U. S.

Senator J. Ralph Burton, of Kansas, today was called upon to defend himself in the United States circuit court against an indictment charging that he was offered and accepted compensation from the Haffner Grain and Securities company of St. Louis, now defunct, for using his influence while a member of the United States senate in behalf of that concern in certain matters pending before the post office department in Washington.

Senator Burton was tried and convicted on the first indictment in March 1914. He appealed to the United States supreme court and the case was reversed. A new indictment was returned last spring and about a month ago demurrers filed by counsel for the defense were sustained by United States Circuit Judge Van Dewanter, who immediately ordered that a new federal grand jury be summoned to consider the evidence in possession of the United States district attorney.

THE IRON MOULDERS

With the Union of Brass Moulders.

Strong Resolutions Adopted in Favor of Universal Eight Hour Day.

Pittsburg, Nov. 20.—The opening of the second week of the American Federation of Labor convention was marked by an interesting address by A. E. Calvin, of Fort Worth, Texas, representing the Farmers Educational and Co-Operative Union of America. Mr. Calvin stated that at the last convention of the Farmer's Union, a resolution was adopted putting on record the members for the future exclusive purchase of union made goods. He said the purpose of the Farmer's Union was to eliminate speculation in cotton. The cornering of the cotton market by speculators must be stopped, and only by co-operation with organized labor can this be accomplished.

The committee on president's report condemned the anti-injunction laws now in force in the United States and declared them unconstitutional. President Gompers views excluding Chinese labor from the country were adopted. Congress was earnestly petitioned to pass laws providing for a universal 8 hour work day and also prohibiting the employment of child labor.

The committee on organization introduced a resolution providing for the appointment of an organizer to spend six months of each year in Michigan, and recommended that the Brass Moulders Union affiliate with the Iron Moulder's Union. The application of the Stone Masons International union for a charter in the Federation was refused. A resolution granting a charter to the Steam Fitters' Union was strongly opposed by John Mitchell and action was deferred till later.

The convention ordered the Car Carpenters' Union now affiliated with the American Car Workers' Union to become members of the Brotherhood of Painters of America. The resolution caused a warm discussion but was finally adopted.

The committee on boycott presented a resolution against the Western Union Telegraph Co., and condemning that company's attitude against the Commercial Telegraphers' Union.

THE WEATHER.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 20.—For Ohio, fair tonight and Tuesday, slowly rising temperature.

The people will not care whether the canal is of the lock variety or sea level, just so it is built on the level.

Now that the election is over, it don't make much difference who first introduced the railway rate question into the Ohio campaign.

Now for a revision of the tariff, and a return of educational matters to the good old days when the school board was not composed of political toadies.

Having failed in their attempt to whip the democrats of the state, the republican leaders of Ohio are now pitted against themselves. May the best bunch of gladiators win.

If McCurdy was a poor man with a salary of $150,000, when the insurance investigation began, what will he be with a salary of only $75,000?

This is a question for the infirm directors to solve.

There was a sort of an irony of fate about the attempted hold-up of the Armours for forty-thousand dollars by the two fellows who claimed to have letters that would incriminate the beef trust, which has been holding up the people for many years.

Henry Watterson, of the Louisville Courier-Journal, had a moment last Friday when his genius really towered above its usually high pinnacle and this is what he wrote:

"You're from beattown!"
"Boston."
"That's the only beattown isn't it?"
"Well, there's Lima, Ohio."

It is a little jarring to the sensibilities of all who have watched republican politics in Ohio for a quarter of a century to hear Foraker attribute the recent landslide to bossism, and a failure to get down with the people in conventions honestly manned with delegates.

Our "Governor" advised the same course last year, and then forgot his advice.

The real truth in the political shell is that Foraker, and Boss Cox too, wanted Herrick defeated, and the word went along the line to the For-akerites in Ohio, and that influence helped to swell an already certain plurality for Hon. John M. Pattison.

It will not be a bad idea to keep your eye on Foraker and Cox, now that Herrick is out of the way.

HAVE YOU HEARD FROM OHIO?

Respectfully dedicated to the "Standpatters."
Have you heard from old Ohio? Don't it fill your soul with grief?
Scorched it clean from Meigs to Fulton, from Schute to Maumee!
Cincinnati to Toledo, from Exeter to Mead? !
Honest voters gladly rallied to deal graft a fatal blow
And they landed dead and lusty on the rotten Cox machine Till the buckeyes popped with laughter at the long awaited scene.
"I've retired," said Cox next morning. But the statement isn't true—Cox was shored, and shored forever—don't it look that way to you?

"That's a democratic measure—I'll have none of it in mine!"
Shouted Foraker in frenzy as he pranced along the line.
"Stand by Roosevelt!" he shouted, "but don't vote the way you stand; Vote for railroad domination—they have made the country grand!"
Had he boasted Mr. Herrick back to place and power again He'd have claimed a vindication—Joe's the foxiest of men.
But the people have grown wiser in the past decade or two,
And they're "tough" Joseph Benson—don't it look that way to you?

"Don't go back upon the party!" pleaded Dick in tearful tones.
But the answer of the people was to walk upon his bones.
"Don't be fooled by public clamor—stand up for the G. O. P!" Shouted Dick—and then the people smote him on the neck with glee.
"Don't do railroads an injustice!" pleaded Dick with platitudinous cries, And the people for an answer smote him fair between the eyes.
Cox and Dick and Joseph Benson all are feeling mighty blue, But Ohio is rejoicing—don't it look that way to you?

Have you heard from old Ohio? Don't the figures make you smile?
Beat the railroad combination seven furlongs in a mile.
Have you heard from old Ohio? Notwithstanding Shaw and Taft Honest Buckeye voters rallied and knocked out both greed and graft.
Have you heard from old Ohio? Don't the figures loom up fine?
Got the "stand pat" fellows located all along the voting line.
Have you heard from old Ohio? Pattison just fairly flew,
And boss rule is more than busted—don't it look that way to you?

—O. B. JOYFUL, in The Commoner.

Reform is only in the corridor, and it is up to the people to say whether it shall enter and take full possession of all departments of the cities, states and the nation.

A corporation lawyer who wouldn't dissent from proposed legislation which had for its object the lessening of profits to his employers is a rare bird, and Foraker is not of that class.

Joe Miller's anti-election joke book has been expurgated. It no longer asks "Why does a chicken cross the road?"

In the place of that query this has been substituted:—Who threw that brick?

There will be fifty-four lawyers in the next state legislature. If they are good, sensible men, it argues well for the people of Ohio.

If they are of the kind fool killers hunt, then somebody will have to open his bowels of compassion.

W. E. Chandler can lay republican defeat in Ohio to Foraker's speech on railway rates, if he wants to, but he had better not make the statement in an Anti-Saloon League meeting, or before a gathering of W. C. T. U. women. It might also be dangerous to say so before George B. Cox, or Joe Miller.

What Witte did at Portsmouth does not seem to have made him a hero at home. Baron Komura is having things easy in comparison with the down right strenuous times the Russian diplomat is facing, and it is more than probable the latter may have to come to Ohio to find out what he will have to do to get in touch with the people.

IT WILL BE DONE.

"The democratic party is pledged to repeal the inheritance tax law passed in the dying throes of the last general assembly.

"There is no doubt in my mind that Governor Herrick would have refused his favor to such a tax upon the dead if it had not been for the extravagant appropriations which had so depleted the treasury of the state that some such war measure was necessary.

"It is bad in principle and vicious in practice. The three per cent tax upon inheritances in excess of $3,000 will be productive of a vast income to the state, but an income absolutely unnecessary provided public affairs are nonstop and economically administered.

"One of the greatest tasks that will confront the next general assembly will be in remedying the extravagance in the conduct of public affairs. There will be no room in the state house for multitudes of useless employees. I want the administration to be a business one from the start, managed just like a great business concern should be managed, with a view to practical and judicious economy."—Governor-elect John M. Pattison.

THE DOPE FIEND.

The mumbiling, shrinking wretch who lies in a cell at Dayton, O., charged with the murder of his father, mother and brother, is not the Dr.
Oliver C. Haugh who in his young manhood went out from a good home, bright of mind and magnificent of physique, with courage and hope and good prospects of winning a high place in life.

No, this is Dr. Oliver C. Haugh when "dope" has done with him.

The bright mind, the big, strong body, the courage and hope and prospect are all gone, and the thing that grovels and jibbers in the cell is all that "dope" leaves of a man when it takes from him the elements of manhood.

The crumpled head, the distorted face, the deadened eyes and the shrunken form that show in Haugh's picture tell the horrible truth.

A benighted, flabby bunch of exercruciating aches, vain longings, wild jealousies, mad spite and deadly impulses is the hideous thing that remains when "dope" has done its work, as blackened, toppling, menacing walls remain of a building swept by fire.

How the devil must delight in a "dope" wreck!

How he must shriek with glee in taking a soul to torture before its time and while yet the body goes on shambling through the world, controlled from hades!—Columbus Citizen.

OPINIONS OF GREAT MINDS.

An editor suggests that the following tribute from John James Ingalls be added to the list of some of the striking things said by great men about the newspapers.

"In a system of representative, popular self-government like ours, the supreme power is public opinion. From the ultimate decision of the tribunal there is neither exculpation nor appeal. Its organ is the press, which protects minorities from the tyrannies of majorities, the weak from the oppression of the strong and the poor from the extortion of the rich by appeal to the conscience of the people, and by condemnation of error, falsehood and injustice.

"The august judge, the despotic magistrate, the corrupt legislator may be indifferent to the penalties and sanction of the moral law, may care little for heaven or hell and less for God or devil; but he trembles and cowers and shrinks from the terrifying publicity of the daily newspaper. No craft or subtlety can evade its sleepless vigilance; no hypocrisy can escape its penetration; no brute can purchase its verdict. With free thought, free speech and free press our civilization will emerge unimpaired from the tremendous revolution through which society is now progressing."

PROSPEROUS YEAR IN OHIO.

Millions were invested in corporate enterprises in Ohio last year.

The secretary of state gave out Saturday the classified list of corporations formed, etc., during the year ending November 15. There were 2820 articles of incorporation filed and 3317 miscellaneous certificates concerning corporations. There were 56 banks, trust and savings and loan companies formed, 3 bank and trust consolidations, 5 building and loan associations, 16 cemetery associations, 71 churches and church societies, 28 colleges, libraries and literary societies, 21 electric light and power companies, 84 gas, oil and natural gas companies, 10 insurance companies and associations, 1037 manufacturing concerns, 81 mining companies, 84 printing and publishing companies, 10 railroad companies, 44 street and electric railway companies, 77 telegraph and telephone companies, 1 bridge company consolidation, 429 social, political and benevolent societies, and 755 miscellaneous companies.

There were 414 increases made in capital stock, and 100 reductions, and the amount thus increased in the capital of corporations was $25,839,500.
The total amount of capital of original companies formed and the increase in capital was $281,261,261.

The amount of reduction of capital stock by the 100 certificates filed was $28,856,194, so that the net increase of certified capital stock of Ohio corporations for the year was $256,405,067.

Measured by the amount of capital stock invested the manufacturing concerns led all other classes with $93, 112,896. Street and electric railways came next with $23,558,500.

Then come banks, etc., with $3,665, 000, building and loan associations with $4,700,000 and electric light and power companies with $2,542,000.

In the increase of capital stock made, manufacturing companies also lead with a total of $7,822,100, and railroad companies follow with $12, 125,000.

ADDING TO THE MACHINE.

On Saturday, George H. Cortelyou, postmaster general, the man who collected campaign funds for the last presidential election from the trusts, the Equitable, Mutual and New York life insurance companies, and then said he did not start in the political world by the following announcement:
"Good postmaster will be retained in office! That is the simple announcement which the public is asked to take literally.

"No matter if the county chairman is deposed and the rival faction gets the organization.

"No matter if the editor of the other paper insists that it is now his turn.

"No matter what the congressman and both United States senators say."

Who says we are not drifting fast and furiously toward a monarchical form of government, with its powerful office holding classes?

Why not as well make the president's term coincident with his good behavior?

Theodore Roosevelt has made a splendid president. No one questions his innate honesty or his ability, but no more dangerous precedent to the future welfare of this country could be established than to elect him for a third term.

Democracy says there is already too much centralization of power for the welfare of the masses and democracy is correct and in strict accord with the things our forefathers wrote in the Declaration of Independence.

The sooner the tide is turned back from toward monarchy and its necessary opposite, serfdom, and we return to first principles, the better it will be for all.

THE IDLER.

L. J. Keppler wishes to deny the statement recently published in the Cincinnati Enquirer in which he was quoted as having expressed himself in favor of a one thousand dollar license law for saloons. On the contrary, he says, he is opposed to a high license because such a law would force many of the smaller places out of business and he believes in the old adage, "to live and let live."

Stops earache in two minutes; toothache or pain of barn or scald in five minutes; hoarseness one hour; nus-cleache, two hours, sore throat, two monarch over pain!

Mrs. George F. Southard will leave

Oklahoma. Her going is regretted by a large circle of friends in the city, and in the Episcopal church.

vision railway mail service, who has been near death for several days is reported as better. Mr. Hollaway has

The annual crowd banquet given by the political voters in Putnam county will take place in Ottawa tomorrow evening at the Hotel Dumont. A long array of noted speakers will sit at the table.

Mrs. Mollie Bradley, of north Elizabeth street, entertained a party of about a dozen friends at a 6 o'clock quail and rabbit dinner last evening.

James E. Wickham returned from Toledo, Saturday night where through his attorney, M. J. Sanford, he was successful in giving bond. It is expected that Mr. Roloson will also give bond today, his brother, Byron having returned from Colorado and now being in consultation with him.

REV. BIGELOW

Discourses On "Keeping
the Rascals Out"Former Candidate Touches Upon the Defeat of Boss Cox

BY THE SILENT VOTER

The Strongest Political Organization Was Beaten.Makes a Plea for Referendum Clause for Franchises.Cincinnati, O., Nov. 20.—Rev. Herbert S. Bigelow, pastor of Vine street Methodist church, chose as his subject for yesterday's discourse, "Keeping the Rascals Out," and discussed generally on the results of the recent election and future policies.
Rev. Bigelow said in part:"We have turned the rascals out."
That is the problem is to keep them out.Yesterday we were hanging our heads with a sense of civic shame. Today our name is no longer a reproach to the people. Yesterday, men of the power of organization, of the grip of the gang and few had faith that the machine could be dislodged that was wielding a reign of terror in the town. Today that machine is beaten, its terror is gone, its Samson is slain, its locks are cut, and there is none to fear him now. Yesterday men spoke in whispers. Today they are loud and cheerful. Yesterday they seemed paralyzed and helpless. Today they are as animated as themselves and they in their new-found freedom, they can no longer boast of its majority. A breath of fresh air has cometo purify the putrid atmosphere of our municipal life and quicken the pulse of our democracy."Oh, the rascals has this town sewed up. You can't do anything against it." This was the dreary comment one heard at every turn. Men said that the boss was a wonderful organizer, that his lieutenants were as clever as they were unscrupulous, that the system was perfect and that we should have to wait until the thieves fell out of some scandal happened.Like a House of Cards.
"But we have seen one of the strongest organizations that was ever built fall like a house of cards. We have seen the organizing ability of the boss, and the resourcefulness of his lieutenants, and the frantic efforts of thousands of office-holders and their relatives, and the purchasable votes of the slums, and the influence of big business men with their pockets full of franchises and subsidy-bribed newspapers, and corruption funds and public service corporations—we have seen all these influences swept away with the utmost ease, apparently with no effort at all, by the silent voter at the polls.Democracy's Greatest Lesson.
"We have learned democracy's greatest lesson. Honest people are always easily in the majority. If wrong prevail, it is because the people sleep. The little finger of the people is thicker than the loins of the biggest boss. The shadow of the machine has passed away. The menacing figure of the boss has shrunk and dwindled in a day. Government will return to the people. Public opinion will become the law. Each man may take a hand in making that opinion. Citizens will respond to patriotic appeals. Popular enthusiasms will break out. The self-respect and independence of manhood will take the place of the cringing, servile, shameless fear of the boss and his machine."But how long shall we enjoy this freedom? Six years ago, the boss was beaten. But it was only a spasm of reform, after which he returned more powerful than before. Will this happen again?"Two Laws Needed.
"There is reason to hope that it will not. The people are wiser now. They know that the boss is not merely a forceful personality, who gathers about himself kindred spirits andbuilds a machine by sheer organizing ability. He is not an accidental genius. He is the product of conditions. Every city has one. He has two sources of power. There is the ignorant and purchasable vote of the slums, and the backing of the franchise-seeking corporations."Abolish all party emblems and pass a rigid Australian ballot law and the slum vote will be practically eliminated. Pass a law attaching a referendum clause to all franchise grants.
Then the corporations will accomplish nothing by controlling councils.
These two laws will do much to keep the rascals out. The next Ohio legislature can not do less than this."

INSPECTION PARTY

Including New Gen'l Manager Stone Coming Tomorrow.

NOW GOING OVER LINE.

Changes in Various Places Are to Be Expected Soon.Another inspection party is coming over the C. H. & D. either tomorrow or Wednesday. In the party will be the new head of affairs, General Manager Stone, accompanied by General Superintendent Gordon. The party inspected the Ivorydale shops at Cincinnati last Saturday, and were in Wellston the day previous. They are expected in Dayton today and Lima tomorrow. The idea is to familiarize General Manager Stone with his new road.

Goes With Hollins.

That something had been doing in C. H. & D. circles before the Erie deal, seems now certain, for not only has Russell Harding resigned and stepped down and out, but announcement comes that he has joined the enemy, having become associated with H. B. Hollins & Co., who with former President Eugene Zimmerman, own the Detroit Southern. This going over to Hollins is indicative that Harding will be the active head of the Detroit Southern and the Anna Arbor systems, and a fight is to enforce the agreement with the C. H. & D. for trackage into Toledo from this city north.

Burkhardt's Short Vacation.

Unable to get away for his summer vacation, Passenger Agent Frank A.
Burkhardt, of the C. H. & D.-Lake Erie depots, took a flying outing Saturday, spending yesterday on Goat Island. He visited Buffalo, Niagara and other points and was back at the ticket window this morning.

IT WILL ALWAYS BE

So Said Learned Lecturer of Theosophy Before a Large Audience.

A GENERAL OUTLINE

Of Religious Beliefs That Have Been Presented to Mankind.Last night at the opera house under the auspices of the Lima Theosophical society, C. Jinarajadasa lectured on theosophy.He spoke to a very attentive and appreciative audience on the subject of "The Science and Religion of the Future." The lecturer said in part:
"Each world religion in the past emphasized some aspect of the many-sided truth. Hinduism in India proclaims a pure Monism of one God and yet at the same time a Polytheism of subordinate agencies, and a Pantheism that everything, organic and inorganic, is God. The divine self and man's self are the same and a man can realize this unity through wisdom and devotion.
"Buddhism proclaims all moral and spiritual laws to be laws of nature and ignores a creator. Each man must stand alone and work out his own salvation. Priests and books have no authority over him. Salvation is attained not by worship or prayers, but by an inner change of heart, through compassion and a perfect moral life."The religion of Zoroaster shows the sun as the symbol of God. God's work in the world is being marred by an evil force in nature and man's duty is to help God to be victorious.
This each man is to do by following the Zoroastrian trinity of pure thoughts, pure words and pure deeds."In China, Confucius emphasized the ideal of the 'superior man,' who through learning and morality fitted himself to play an active part in life.
The study of poetry, history and ethics and above all music was the necessary culture for all."Lao-tze on the other hand proclaims a lofty, quietism and that man must seek the inner God within him.
No external culture can help in this, but only a withdrawal into one's nature through humility and gentleness."In ancient Egypt the two fundamental ideas were the fatherhood of the unseen God and the immortality of the soul after death. The message of Greece was an all round culture of the soul through love of all things beautiful and good in literature, philosophy and art, and everything in moderation."Christianity proclaims the two duties of love to God and love to one's neighbor. The mystic teaching of the early Christians taught that each man was a Christ and would be made divine through wisdom and love and through the grace of God."Mahomed insists on one God, to be imaged in no form at all, and the need of man to submit to his will.
"In this modern age, when we are gathering up the threads of the past, we have something new, modern science, that has revolutionized our ideas of the possibilities of nature.
We have also art to make life brighter and happier."There will no doubt be another religion in the future on a more inclusive basis than any in the past; but that will not be theosophy. The-osophy is not a religion nor a special science, but it is that conception of the universe wherein are found all the principles of religion and science, philosophy and art."Many religions will come and pass away, but there will always be theosophy for those who desire a broader view of life and nature than will ever be found in any one religion alone."EXCURSION TO SPRINGFIELD AND JACKSONSunday, November 26th via Detroit, Toledo and Ironton railway. Special train will pass Lima, Ohio, at 5:30 a. m., returning leave Jackson 5:00 for obstructing a public highway. The fight, which was originally between the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton Railroad Company and the Lima, Find-

Ohio Traction Company has developed into a three-cornered one, of which the city of Findlay is one of the partici-pans.The fight originated several days ago, when the Western Ohio Traction people built their lines up to both sides of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton tracks at Lima avenue. The railroad people refused to allow the traction people to build the crossing until they had signed an agreement, it is said, to be responsible for wrecks, etc., which the traction people refused to do. Thereupon the railroad people sent an engine onto the crossing.Chie David and Harry Nichols were

OF HEART TROUBLE

A Laborer Dies in a Bunk Car in the C. H. & D. Yards.

CAME HERE SATURDAY

And Intended to Go to Work on the C. H. & D. Today.

Carl Struble, a laborer who came from Toledo, Saturday morning, died Saturday evening, in a bunk car in the local yards of the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton road at company. His death was of short duration and the examination which Coroner Blevins held over the body revealed the fact that he had been a sufferer from heart trouble, a hard substance, resembling bone, having formed over a portion of the pericardium, interfering seriously with the heart action and finally bringing about the death of the unfortunate victim.

Struble came to this city to work on the C. H. & D. He secured employment Saturday morning but complained that he was not feeling well and was advised to rest in one of the company's bunk cars in the yards near the shops. He went to the car and was alone. He died Saturday evening in the evening hours. A physician and the local coroner were summoned, but the man was dead before any relief could be administered. The remains were removed to the home of his mother, Mrs. Struble, at Springfield, Ill. It developed that Carl C. Struble is a son of the deceased and he will arrive here tonight in the charge of the remains.

ENGINEER GREENLAND SERIOUSLY SCALDED

An Engine on the Lake Erie and Western Road Turns Over at the T. & O. C. Crossing at St. Marys.

FIREMAN YINGLING SLIGHTLY INJURED

The Men Were Breaking In an Engine and Either Ran Into an Open Switch or Struck an Open Deraill at the Crossing. Engineer Greenland Brought Home.

Engineer Charles Greenland, of the Lake Erie and Western railroad, was quite seriously injured in a wreck that occurred on that road at St. Marys. An engine which was running ran into an open switch or off of an open deraill at the Lake Erie and Western and Toledo and Ohio Central crossing in the east end of St. Marys and turned over on its side in the ditch. Engineer Greenland and Fireman Bruce Yingling went over with the engine and the former was scalded about the face and breast and on the left arm by escaping steam. Fireman Yingling was buried beneath the coal that was thrown into the gangway of the engine when it turned over and had to be dug out by some citizens of the town who came to his aid and the engineer's assistance but his injuries are only slight.

Engineer Greenland and Fireman Yingling were breaking in an engine that had just been turned out of the main shops here and were running "light" when the accident occurred. They ran to St. Marys and had started on the return trip to this city, with the engine backing up, and had no warning of the danger until the engine suddenly left the rails and turned over on its side beside the track. Details of the accident have not yet been fully reported to the officials in this city, but it is stated that the engine either struck an open switch or ran onto an open deraill at the west side of the T. & O. C. crossing.

The injured engineer was brought to this city on east bound passenger train No. 4 this afternoon and was taken to his home on south Elizabeth street, in Bennett's ambulance. He is suffering considerably pain but it is thought that unless he has sustained internal injuries his condition is not dangerous.

A wreck train was sent from this city to the scene of the accident to "pick up" the wrecked engine.

BRONCHITIS.

Druggist H. F. Vorkamp Tells the People Quick—est Means to Cure It.

Asked one day in his store the question, "What is good for bronchitis?" Mr. Vorkamp, our well known druggist, answered, "For years old fashioned cod liver oil has been known to possess the most remarkable curative and healing properties for throat, bronchial, and lung troubles of anything known to medicine, but on account of the grease which enveloped its curative principles, it has been impossible for many people to take enough of it into their systems to combat a thoroughly settled disease without clogging the system and upsetting the stomach."

"Now, however," continued Mr. Vorkamp, "we have Vinol, which contains in a highly concentrated form all of the medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil actually taken from fresh cod's livers, without a drop of oil or grease to upset the stomach and retard its work, and physicians agree that it is the greatest cure for all throat, bronchial and lung troubles known to medicine."

Miss Anna Ray writes us that after suffering for five years with bronchitis, and trying all kinds of medicines without relief, Vinol cured her, and we have hundreds of just such letters.

We wish every person suffering from chronic colds, coughs, bronchitis, and every aged, weak, or convalescent person who needs a healthy, strength-giving and blood-making tonic would try Vinol on our recommendation to return the purchase money if it fails." H. F. Vorkamp, druggist.

WAS NOT ALLOWED

Court Rendered the Decision in North Main St. Injunction.

WORK WILL START

At Once on Laying the Double Track North of P. F. Tracks.

Judge Cunningham this morning rendered an exhaustive opinion on the merits of the injunction case brought by residents of north Main street against the Lima Electric Railway & Light Co., to restrain that company from double-tracking north Main street from Wayne street north to the city limits.

The court quoted many authorities, and showed the rights of property owners in all matters regarding the streets on which their property has frontage. In the end he refused the injunction, and the traction company who are now right at Murphy street, will begin at once the construction of the new track to accommodate the service required by the Findlay-Lima line which expects to be operating by the first of the coming month.

This disposed of the temporary injunction matter, the court holding the ordinance of April 25, 1892 invalid for want of proper consent of property owners, and as to the ordinance of 1892, June 12, evidence was not sufficient to show want of consent. The decision has been of general interest to attorneys and the case will be assigned on Wednesday morning for its final hearing on the merits.

Call of the Docket.
Judge Cunningham will call the docket Wednesday morning for the last civil assignments of the present term of court.

Jury Case on Trial.
The case of the Spencerville Home & Savings Association vs. Mary and Ella Hanley, is on trial this afternoon.

To Attend State Meeting.

IN LOVING REMEMBRANCE OF JOHN L. BARNHART.

"Tis hard to break the tender cord When love has bound the heart, 'Tis hard, so hard, to speak the words 'We must forever part.'"

Dearest loved one we must lay thee In the peaceful grave's embrace, But thy memory will be cherished, 'Till we see thy heavenly face.

Peaceful be thy silent slumber, Peaceful in thy grave so low; Thou no more will join our number, Thou no more our sorrows know.

Yet again we hope to meet thee, When the day of life is fled, And in Heaven with joy to greet thee Where no morewell tears are shed.

He has gone from his dear ones; his child, his wife, Whom he willing toiled for, and loved as if his life;

Oh, God! how mysterious and how strange are thy ways, To take from us this loved one in the best of his days.

Weep not that his toils are over; Weep not that his race is run, God grant we may rest as calmly, When our work, like his, is done.

Call not back the dear departed, Anchored safe where storms are few;

On the border land we left him, Soon to meet and part no more, When we leave this world of changes, When we leave this world of care, We shall find our missing loved one In our Father's mansion fair.
